ICYMI: Scott Walker Celebrates Veterans and Our Freedoms at Independence Day Parades

[Madison, Wis.] – This week, Scott Walker joined Wisconsin’s hard-working families and our Veterans to celebrate our freedoms and support our armed service members at Independence Day parades in Kenosha, Menomonee Falls, Wauwatosa, Franklin, Hartford, and Green Lake.

The governor shared his optimistic vision for how he will help Wisconsin win the 21st century over the next four years and what his bold reforms have done to spark Wisconsin’s comeback. Record-low unemployment, historic investments in education, and $8 billion in tax relief are proof that Scott Walker’s reforms have turned our state around – he is committed to continue building on our successes in order to keep Wisconsin moving forward.

Touted as one of the largest Independence Day parades in the state —Wauwatosa sure knows how to put on a show.

With more one-hundred floats and participants —including TODAY’S TMJ4’s own Tom Durian, and about 25,000 thousand spectators, Governor Walker and many others say this parade and the city of Tosa itself is all about community.

"[It's all about] community and fun things like this," Governor Walker said. "We raised our kids here [because] part of what we loved was [the] great schools, great community sense, a lot of folks coming together." ...
