Kelda Roys Denounces Trump's Supreme Court Pick

Madison, WI - Kelda Roys has come out strongly against Brett Kavanaugh, President Trump's newest nominee to the Supreme Court. Roys released the following statement:

"Donald Trump has pledged to appoint justices to the Supreme Court who will overturn Roe v. Wade, and that is unacceptable. As such, I cannot support Kavanaugh's nomination. Brett Kavanaugh's history indicates he will be a rubber-stamp for Donald Trump's anti-choice and anti-worker agenda. Kavanaugh's record is too extreme for our Supreme Court.

"This Supreme Court vacancy, and Trump's pledge to appoint anti-choice justices, poses the clearest threat to reproductive rights in decades. This appointment underscores the importance of electing a governor with a strong track record of championing women's health. I have that record, and I have pledged to pardon anyone charged under Wisconsin's current abortion ban, which will go into effect immediately if Roe is overturned."

Kelda Roys, 39, is a small business owner, attorney, former state representative, and past head of NARAL Pro-Choice Wisconsin who has been standing up for women and families throughout her career. In the Assembly, she stood out as an influential and effective lawmaker, delivering results for working families and helping lead the opposition to Governor Scott Walker's divisive agenda. As a parent and step-parent of four girls, Roys will fight for paid family leave, affordable childcare, great schools, and quality healthcare for all. In a year in which Wisconsin voters are ready for change, Kelda Roys stands ready to lead Wisconsin into a more progressive future on day one.
