Madison-based E.M. Wasylik Associates Adds International Business Development Associate to Growing Team

Madison, WI – July 12, 2018 – David Urintsev has joined E.M. Wasylik Associates (EMW) as an International Business Development Associate. This expands the firm’s capabilities to develop and implement strategies for companies both entering the international market for the first time, as well as for those companies already conducting business overseas and looking for global expansion and growth.

Urintsev’s experiences include overseas operations management and the creation, planning and execution of global marketing and business initiatives. He has previously held several positions in retail buying and marketing, and has experience in financial analysis, vendor management, and ecommerce business growth. He is fluent in English, Russian, and Spanish.

Urintsev will be based in the Midwest but will travel internationally to assist with clients as they conduct their business development efforts. “David brings excellent negotiation expertise to the EMW team, as well as deep experience working across a wide range of cultural situations,” stated EMW’s co-founder Ken Wasylik. “Cultural know-how and sensitivity is crucial between companies and people of different cultures – it can be the difference between success and failure. David’s experience and world-wide travel will be very beneficial to our clients as they negotiate successful outcomes. We are thrilled to welcome him to the EMW team.”

Urintsev is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Marketing, Management, and International Business. He also holds Certificates from the Universidad de Sevilla (Spain) in both Spanish and European Studies.
