

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 11, 2018

The Racine Political Education Coalition, a group of more than 25 local community organizations, announces a candidate forum in preparation for the primary election in August. The forums are nonpartisan and both Republican and Democratic candidates have been invited to participate if they face primary challengers. Third-party candidates are not included as they are not facing challengers in the primary.

On Saturday, July 21, 2018, from 11:00 am – 1:00 pm, the candidate forum will feature candidates for the U.S. Senate and the U.S. House of Representatives (District 1). The forum will be held at the Ascension All Saints Health Pavilion Auditorium, 3821 Spring St. Use the Health Pavilion entrance and take the elevator to the lower level.

Candidates will answer questions prepared by the Racine Political Education Coalition forum committee, as well as questions submitted by the audience.

This event is free and open to the public.

For further information, contact:

Denise Anastasio

262/498-2298

Denise.anastasio@gmail.com

American Association of University Women (AAUW) - African American Roundtable - BONK! - Coming Together Racine - El-Shaddai Community Church - Forward Racine - Gentlemen Making A Difference - Heritage Committee of Racine - Insider Newspaper - League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) - National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) - Olympia Brown Unitarian Universalist Church - First Choice Pre-Apprentice Program - Professional Women Network for Service - Racine Coalition for Peace & Justice - Racine Educators Association - Racine Interfaith Coalition (RIC) - Racine Islamic Center - Racine Mirror Newspaper - Racine Public Library - St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church - Turn Up the Vote! - Urban League of Racine/Kenosha - Visioning A Greater Racine - Wayman African Methodist Episcopal Church - Why Gangs - Zoe Outreach Ministries