Governor Walker Seeks Applicants for Outagamie County District Attorney

MADISON – Governor Scott Walker announced today that he is seeking applicants for appointment as Outagamie County District Attorney.

The new appointee will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Outagamie County District Attorney Carrie Schneider, whom Governor Walker appointed to serve as the Outagamie County Judge. The new appointee will serve out the remainder of the unexpired term and will be up for election in November 2020.

Please submit the following:

Cover Letter

Short Resume

References (list of 3-4)

D.A. Application: found on Governor Walker's website www.walker.wi.gov. (Select "Contact" at the top of the page, "Apply to Serve Wisconsin," and then "District Attorney Application")

Resumes, cover letters, and applications must be received no later than 5:00 p.m., Friday, July 28, 2017. Following submission, applicants will receive an email confirming we have received the application and describing the general process for the appointment.

Potential applicants with questions about the appointments process should email their questions to govdistrictattorney@wisconsin.gov. If you need to speak with someone immediately, you may contact Kate Wiedel at 608-266-1212.
