County Board of Supervisors Congratulate the Bucks on Historic NBA Championship

MILWAUKEE – On Tuesday night the Milwaukee Bucks defeated the Phoenix Suns in game 6 of the NBA Finals to win the team’s first NBA Championship since 1971.

Milwaukee County Supervisors Priscilla E. Coggs-Jones, Eddie Cullen, Joseph J. Czarnecki, Russell Antonio Goodwin, Sr., Jason Haas, Willie Johnson, Jr., Patti Logsdon, Felesia A. Martin, Sylvia Ortiz-Velez, Shawn Rolland, Steven Shea, Liz Sumner, Anthony Staskunas, Sequanna Taylor, Sheldon A. Wasserman, John Weishan, Jr., and Chairwoman Marcelia Nicholson released the following statement congratulating the Milwaukee Bucks on their NBA championship:

“Congratulations to the Bucks for bringing the first NBA Championship to Milwaukee in 50 years! Their performance is an inspiration to us all and shows that with strength and perseverance you can achieve anything.

“The Bucks’ playoff run showed how incredible Milwaukee is when we come together around a common cause. Seeing the turnout at the Deer District and at many venues around the county was a testament to what a dedicated, proud community we are.

“We look forward to taking the momentum of being on this international stage to continue to show the world that Milwaukee is a world class county and an excellent place to live and work.

“This is a wonderful time to be a Milwaukeean, and we are so proud of our Milwaukee Bucks.”

A victory parade is scheduled to take place tomorrow morning at 11 a.m. beginning at the eastern end of Wisconsin Avenue.
