

For media inquiries:
Kate Bruns; Vice President, Marketing & Communications
kbruns@foxcitieschamber.com

Fox Cities Chamber President and CEO Joins National Board

Becky Bartoszek elected to board of directors for Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives

FOX CITIES, Wis. (July 27, 2021) — Becky Bartoszek, President and CEO of the Fox Cities (Wisconsin) Chamber of Commerce, has been elected to serve on the board of directors for ACCE, the Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives, an Alexandria, Va.-based association of more than 9,000 professionals who work for and with more than 1,600 chambers of commerce.

Members of ACCE’s board of directors represent more than 50 organizations, including many of the world’s largest and most influential regional chambers of commerce.

“We are pleased to welcome Becky to the ACCE Board of Directors,” said Sheree Anne Kelly, president & CEO of ACCE. “She joins the organization’s volunteer leadership at a time when the role of chambers of commerce has never been more critical. As our members’ communities and regions emerge from the pandemic and focus on economic recovery, Becky’s expertise and leadership will contribute to achieving meaningful change, continued economic recovery and more equitable prosperity.”

Bartoszek was named Fox Cities Chamber President and CEO in 2019; she has lived in Wisconsin since 1998 and previously served as vice president of the Great Lakes for Alltel Wireless; market leader for the QTI Group, and small business owner of a State Farm agency.

Bartoszek currently serves on the board of directors for the New North, the coordinating committee for Imagine Fox Cities, and the advisory board for the Wisconsin Chamber of Commerce Executives (WCCE). She was appointed by Wisconsin Gov. Tony Evers to the Advisory Council on Workforce Investment, where she serves as the co-chair of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Committee. She and her family currently reside in Freedom, Wis.

The mission of ACCE is to support and develop chamber professionals to lead businesses and their communities. ACCE identifies and analyzes trends affecting communities, shares best practices, and develops benchmarking studies, in addition to providing other tools to help chamber leaders manage and improve operations at their organization to achieve the highest impact in their communities.

###

About ACCE

Established in 1914, ACCE is an association of over 9,000 chamber professionals from 1,600 chambers of commerce throughout the United States, including 93 of the top 100 U.S. metro areas and a host of international markets. The combined membership of ACCE chambers is close to one million businesses. Chamber leaders look to ACCE for best practices, networks and new ideas that will help them advance the interests of their communities. ACCE recommends successful programs and strategies, and identifies trends, partners and business models that show promise. For more information, visit www.ACCE.org.

About the Fox Cities Chamber of Commerce

The Fox Cities Chamber of Commerce captures the energy of one of Wisconsin's most dynamic regions and transforms it into innovative programs and services that promote employers, economic development, and quality of life in the Fox Cities region. The Fox Cities Chamber serves all of the Fox Cities communities within the counties of Outagamie, Calumet, and the northern portion of Winnebago. For more information, visit www.foxcitieschamber.com.