Tony Evers Campaign Launches New Ad, "Scott Walker and the Special Interests"

Former Walker Cabinet Member Speaks Out Against Walker's Special Interest Priorities

Today, the Tony Evers for Wisconsin campaign announced that it is launching a new ad highlighting Scott Walker's record of putting the special interests that donate to his campaign ahead of Wisconsin families. In the 30 second spot, former Secretary of the Department of Financial Institutions Peter Bildsten speaks out against the way the Walker Administration gave special treatment to the special interests who fund Walker's campaigns.

Bildsten says that "it seemed every decision Walker made was about pleasing his donors," and talks about being required to meet with predatory lenders who rip off Wisconsin consumers and other special interests because they gave to Walker's campaign. Bildsten also says that he was told to avoid making electronic records while serving in the Walker Administration.

"Wisconsin voters need to know the truth about Scott Walker's shameful record of putting special interests ahead of hard-working Wisconsin families," said Maggie Gau, Campaign Manager for Tony Evers for Wisconsin. "Our government should work for us, not just for powerful campaign donors. And it's time we elected a governor who understands that."
