CLEAN WISCONSIN ACTION FUND ENDORSES EMILY SIEGRIST

Siegrist seen as fighter for clean water, clean air, and clean energy

RIVER HILLS - Emily Siegrist, candidate for the Wisconsin State Assembly (District 24), today issued the following statement:

“Our natural environment is something we need to protect not only for those around today, but for future generations ahead. That’s why I’m honored to have earned the support of Clean Wisconsin Action Fund and their recognition of my positions toward our shared commitment to protect Wisconsin’s natural resources and public health while promoting job creation.

“Wisconsin’s environment is a key toward a strong economy. Tourism, travel, and health are all dependent on the actions we take, and the protections and investments we put in place to ensure the Wisconsin we have today is better than the way we found it.”

Emily Siegrist is a nurse practitioner, adjunct faculty at Milwaukee School of Engineering and Bryant and Stratton, and veteran of our Armed Forces. She is a resident of River Hills where she is raising her two kids, Caroline and Elias, with her husband Jeremy. The election for the 24th district will be held Tuesday, November 6, 2018.
