Representative Stafsholt to Discuss Veteran's Issues with Deputy Secretary Tom Rhatican

New Richmond – State Representative Rob Stafsholt (R-New Richmond) has solidified a roundtable meeting for Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs Deputy Secretary, Tom Rhatican, to come up and listen to local residents', officials', and veterans' concerns and questions on veterans' affairs. The session will be on Thursday, September 6th. It will begin at 11:00 AM at the Baldwin Legion, located at 410 Maple Street in Baldwin.

"One of the things I have worked on since taking office is making sure that other decision makers in Madison are aware of the needs and wants up here in our area," said Stafsholt, "That is not always easy. It is important that we have "Madison" come out to our neck of the woods to see and hear our specific and unique issues and questions."

Rep. Rob Stafsholt represents the 29th Assembly District which includes much of the eastern portion of St. Croix County and the western portion of Dunn County – including Menomonie, Wilson, Glenwood City, Knapp, Woodville, Baldwin, Hammond, New Richmond, Deer Park, and Boyceville. This listening session will provide members of the community the opportunity to share their thoughts and ideas with Rep. Stafsholt and Tom in person and close to home rather than going to Madison. The time and location is listed below:

Baldwin Legion

Thursday, September 6th

11:00 AM-12:30 PM

410 Maple Street

Baldwin, WI 54002

Stafsholt also added, "Whether you are a citizen, town board member, city official, or if you are in my district or not, please come share your ideas and concerns so Madison hears from us!"

Any questions about the events can be directed to rep.stafsholt@legis.wisconsin.gov or via phone at (608) 266-7683.
