

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
 August 24, 2018

News Release

Regents approve name changes for UW System two-year campuses

MADISON – The University of Wisconsin System Board of Regents approved name changes today for several of the former two-year UW Colleges campuses which now operate as branch campuses of regional comprehensive campuses under the UW System’s restructuring initiative that took effect July 1.

UW-Barron County’s new name was approved at the June Board meeting. UW-Oshkosh will propose name changes for UW-Fox Valley and UW-Fond du Lac at a future meeting.

UW SYSTEM BRANCH CAMPUS RENAMING
Former Two-Year Campus Names	New Two-Year Campus Names
UW-Barron County	University of Wisconsin–Eau Claire - Barron County
UW-Manitowoc UW-Marinette UW-Sheboygan	University of Wisconsin–Green Bay, Manitowoc Campus University of Wisconsin–Green Bay, Marinette Campus University of Wisconsin–Green Bay, Sheboygan Campus
UW-Washington County UW-Waukesha	University of Wisconsin–Milwaukee at Washington County University of Wisconsin–Milwaukee at Waukesha
UW-Baraboo/Sauk County UW-Richland	University of Wisconsin–Platteville Baraboo Sauk County University of Wisconsin–Platteville Richland
UW-Marathon County UW-Marshfield/Wood County	University of Wisconsin–Stevens Point at Wausau University of Wisconsin–Stevens Point at Marshfield
UW-Rock County	University of Wisconsin–Whitewater at Rock County

The Regents unanimously approved the UW System restructuring project in December 2017. UW System formally submitted its application to restructure to the Higher Learning Commission in January and the HLC approved the application in June.

–END–

MEDIA CONTACT:

Heather LaRoi, UW System
 608-265-3195, hlaroi@uwsa.edu
 Media line: 608-263-1700
universityrelations@uwsa.edu