Nicholson Campaign Statement on New Entrant to U.S. Senate Race

The below statement can be attributed to Kevin Nicholson campaign spokesman Michael Antonopolous:

"Kevin Nicholson fought in two wars to protect the freedoms of all Americans, and has said repeatedly that he respects the right of any American to use that freedom to run for office. Wisconsin Republicans know it will take a conservative outsider like Kevin Nicholson to take back Washington from career politicians like Senator Baldwin, and to put an end to her disastrous record. That's why so many conservatives are already supporting Kevin's campaign — and his momentum continues to grow. Kevin is a highly decorated former Captain in the Marine Corps who will take the fight to Washington."

Last night, conservative foreign policy heavyweight Ambassador John Bolton hosted a fundraiser for the Nicholson campaign in Milwaukee. Kevin has also been endorsed by the conservative Club for Growth and Madison Project, his campaign is supported by a growing list of key finance co-chairs from throughout Wisconsin, and he has signed the Taxpayer Protection Pledge from Americans for Tax Reform.
