Kevin Nicholson Signs U.S. Term Limits Pledge

- Also Promises to Serve No More Than 2 Terms -

Conservative outsider and decorated Marine Corps combat veteran Kevin Nicholson announced today that he has signed the U.S. Term Limits Amendment Pledge.

As a signer, Kevin promises that as a member of the U.S. Senate he will cosponsor and vote for the U.S. Term Limits Amendment of three (3) House terms and two (2) Senate terms.

Kevin has also pledged to personally serve no more than two terms in the Senate.

"We have too many politicians who go to Washington and seem to only care about hanging onto power for as long as they can. That leads to bad decision making and even worse outcomes," Nicholson said. "We need people in the U.S. Senate who are there to do what's best for Wisconsin, not to protect their political careers. That's why terms limits are so important."

"I will fight for term limits in the U.S. Senate," Nicholson added. "And if elected, I'll limit myself to two terms - no matter what."
