Rep. Kurtz Seeks Nominations for First Responder of the Year Award

MADISON – Representative Tony Kurtz (R-Wonewoc) is now accepting nominations for the First Responder of the Year Award for individuals from the 50th Assembly District. This award highlights the brave men and women who do great work each and every day to keep their communities safe.

Nominees can consist of law enforcement officers, firefighters, or emergency medical service personnel who exemplifies community service, selflessness, and dedication. One individual will be selected from each Assembly district and invited to the State Capitol to be formally recognized on the Assembly floor during First Responders Appreciation Month in October.

In 2019, Representative Kurtz recognized Charli and Lauri Muchow as the 50th Assembly District's First Responder of the Year.

Nominations are due to Rep. Kurtz's office by Friday, October 8th. You can nominate someone by visiting Rep. Kurtz's website at <https://legis.wisconsin.gov/assembly/50/Kurtz/2021-first-responder-of-the-year-award/> or by emailing Rep.Kurtz@legis.wi.gov with the person you are nominating name, contact information, and brief description of the candidate.
