Johnson, Baldwin Recommend U.S. Marshal Candidates

WASHINGTON — U.S. Senators Ron Johnson (R-Wis.) and Tammy Baldwin (D-Wis.) announced Thursday their recommendation to the White House to consider five Wisconsinites to serve as U.S. Marshal for Wisconsin's eastern and western districts.

The candidates were among those recommended by a federal nominating commission established by the senators to advance qualified candidates for nominations in Wisconsin.

The full text of the Wisconsin senators' letter of recommendation to the White House is available here and below.

The President
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

We are pleased to recommend the following individuals to serve as the United States Marshal for their respective jurisdictions:

Eastern District of Wisconsin

Dean C. Meyer
Alfonso Morales
Anna M. Ruzinski

Western District of Wisconsin

Ron D. Cramer
Kim V. Gaffney

These candidates were among those recommended by a commission that we established to screen applicants. We believe that each of these candidates would make an outstanding United States Marshal and are pleased to recommend them to you.

Sincerely,

Ron Johnson
United States Senator

Tammy Baldwin
United States Senator
