Bewley on WI Professional Police Association “Honor Roll”

Mason, WI - The Wisconsin Professional Police Association (WPPA) has released its 2017-18 Legislative Report Card and named Wisconsin State Senator Janet Bewley to its “Law Enforcement Honor Roll”. This honor is presented to a select group of Wisconsin State Legislators in recognition of their efforts to advance both public safety throughout Wisconsin and the individuals who serve to provide that safety.

“First of all, I want to thank the men and women in uniform who work to keep our communities safe, and put the wellbeing of others above their own personal safety.” said Bewley, “I’m proud to be recognized by the WPPA with this honor, and I look forward to working with them when the legislature convenes in January.”

The WPPA represents over 10,000 members throughout Wisconsin and over 300 affiliates and is Wisconsin’s largest Law Enforcement Group. The organization works with the legislature to promote the interests of its officers as well as the public they protect.

Wisconsin State Senator Janet Bewley is completing her first term in the State Senate and is currently running for a second term. She represents the 25th Senate District, which includes in full or in-part: Douglas, Washburn, Barron, Bayfield, Ashland, Iron, Price, Vilas, Sawyer, Burnett, and St. Croix counties.
