Candidate for 84th Assembly seat Erica Flynn seeks forum with opponent before election

Greenfield – The campaign to elect Erica Flynn state representative in the 84th Assembly District is attempting to arrange a candidate forum with her opponent, Republican incumbent Mike Kuglitsch.

The Flynn campaign has seen multiple delays from her opponent, finally culminating in a statement that he is only interested in a “large multi-candidate forum”, without providing a date or time for such an event. Erica Flynn is eager to participate in a forum that advances public understanding of the candidates and issues. It is regrettable that her opponent has used delay tactics to avoid facing her and the public he serves.

Erica Flynn’s campaign will hold a candidate forum, with or without her opponent, on Sunday, October 21. Details will be forthcoming. The event will be moderated by the nonpartisan group League of Women Voters, with time for unscripted questions for the audience.

The Erica Flynn campaign welcomes the participation of her opponent, as well as invitations to attend additional forums or debates.
