This is a commemorative coin. And this is a rape kit.
This doesn't fight crime, but testing the DNA in one of these can help you catch a dangerous criminal.
So why did Brad Schimel spend thousands of taxpayer dollars on commemorative coins,	"Schimel drops $10,000 on commemorative coins" Milwaukee Journal Sentinel, 1/6/17
while over four thousand rape kits went untested for more than two years?	"State has tested only 9 backlogged rape kits" Green Bay Press Gazette, 2/2/17
I'm Josh Kaul. I prosecuted murderers and drug traffickers. I'm running for Attorney General. And I know that you deserve a lot better... than this.

Josh Kaul served as a federal prosecutor in Baltimore, one of America's most violent cities. There, Kaul prosecuted murderers, gang members, and drug traffickers, taking dangerous criminals off the street and making communities more secure. He grew up in Oshkosh and Fond du Lac in a family of law enforcement professionals and teachers. He is running for Attorney General in 2018.
