Mary Burke Still Won't Commit to a Two-Year Tuition Freeze

Madison, WI (October 20th, 2014) – Today Mary Burke will visit the UW-Madison campus to early vote with college students. UW-Madison College Republican Chairman Charlie Hoffmann released this statement in response:

“No matter what Mary Burke says on campus today she can't hide the fact that she still refuses to commit to another 2 year tuition freeze. UW-Madison students deserve to know if she is planning to raise tuition if elected like her predecessor Jim Doyle chose to do. In his first two years in office he chose to raise tuition 18% and 15% for those attending a UW System school. College students can't afford to elect a Governor who would raise tuition when we are trying to better ourselves through higher education. Mary Burke should be embarrassed that with only two weeks left until Election Day that she still refuses to comment on how she plans to keep college tuition affordable.”
