Western Wisconsin leaders announce support for Judge Rebecca Dallet

LA CROSSE – Dozens of elected leaders from across Western Wisconsin today announced their endorsement for Judge Rebecca Dallet in her campaign for Wisconsin Supreme Court.

“What’s most important for the Supreme Court is experience and judgment, and Judge Rebecca Dallet wins on both counts,” said Judge Scott Horne. “She has the courtroom experience and she has demonstrated the fairness and impartiality that ensure justice will be served in every case. She has my endorsement to be the next justice on the Wisconsin Supreme Court.”

“Judge Rebecca Dallet has dedicated her career to helping people and serving justice, and that’s why she has my endorsement in her campaign for Wisconsin Supreme Court,” said Tim Gruenke, District Attorney for La Crosse County. “For more than a decade, she prosecuted criminals and protected victims, including making sure violent sexual predators were locked up and stayed there. She understands the system and will do a great job on the Supreme Court.”

“There’s no one I’d trust more on the Wisconsin Supreme Court than Judge Rebecca Dallet,” said Appeals Court Judge Lisa Stark. “She has deep experience, compassion, and she’s truly independent, as every good judge should be. We need Rebecca on the Supreme Court.”

“My campaign is criss-crossing the state to meet voters in every corner of Wisconsin, and I’m continuously honored and humbled to have public officials and community leaders offer their support of our message of fairness and independence,” said Judge Dallet.
