Farmers Union's annual meeting season is underway

The annual county meeting season is underway for Wisconsin Farmers Union. Each fall, the family farm organization's county chapters gather to elect officers, select delegates and discuss policy resolutions in advance of the annual WFU State Convention in January. These meetings are a great way to get to meet members of the family farm organization and learn about what is happening at the local level. COVID-19 precautions will be taken, with some meetings shifting outdoors or to a virtual setting. For Zoom links for virtual meetings or to check for updates due to changing conditions, visit www.wisconsinfarmersunion.com/events.
