Josh Kaul: Nine. That's how many rape kits Brad Schimel tested in his first two years as Attorney General out of a backlog of more than four thousand. Just nine rape kits.	"State has tested only 9 backlogged rape kits" Green Bay Press Gazette, 2/2/17 4,154 kits designated for testing wisaki.doj.wi.gov/numbers/data-results
Dangerous criminals on the streets and survivors waiting for justice. And Brad Schimel tested only nine rape kits in two years.
I'm Josh Kaul. As a federal prosecutor I put away murderers and drug traffickers and now I'm running for Attorney General. You've waited long enough for someone who can do the job.

Josh Kaul served as a federal prosecutor in Baltimore, one of America's most violent cities. There, Kaul prosecuted murderers, gang members, and drug traffickers, taking dangerous criminals off the street and making communities more secure. He grew up in Oshkosh and Fond du Lac in a family of law enforcement professionals and teachers. He is running for Attorney General in 2018.
