Rep. Knodl Re-Elected Majority Caucus Chair

Madison – State Representative Dan Knodl (R-Germantown) was re-elected Majority Caucus Chair by his colleagues on Monday. This will be his second term serving in the position.

“It’s an honor to continue serving as Caucus Chair for the Assembly Republicans, and I am thankful for the trust they’ve placed in me. I will work hard with my colleagues in the Assembly to make sure we have a successful legislative session for both the constituents I represent and the whole state,” said Knodl.

Rep. Knodl was elected in 2008, and will begin his sixth term in the Assembly. He represents the communities of Germantown, Menomonee Falls, Mequon, River Hills, Brown Deer, and Glendale.
