Rep. Kooyenga re-appointed to serve as Vice-Chair on Joint Finance Committee

Madison – State Representative Dale Kooyenga (R-Brookfield) was re-appointed by Assembly Speaker Robin Vos (R-Rochester) to continue serving on the Joint Finance Committee. The Joint Finance Committee is a 16-member standing committee with the primary task of reviewing all state appropriations and revenues.

“I am genuinely looking forward to listening to and working with my colleagues and people from around the state to improve the lives of all Wisconsin citizens” said Kooyenga. “I am grateful to the Speaker and the rest of the leadership team for the opportunity to continue to serve in this capacity.”

Rep. Kooyenga is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and holds an MBA from Marquette University. He proudly serves the 14th Assembly District which includes Brookfield, Milwaukee and Wauwatosa and will be serving his fourth term in the State Assembly in January.

“I am honored to serve on the budget committee” added Kooyenga. “I believe my knowledge on tax and finance related issues will serve the committee and the citizens of Wisconsin well.”
