LA CROSSE, WI – After all of the ballots in the 32nd Senate District were counted, canvassed and recounted, Senator Jennifer Shilling (D-La Crosse) maintained her lead over Republican candidate Dan Kapanke and Independent candidate Chip DeNure. With final recount results in at all four counties in the 32nd District, Sen. Shilling declared victory and released the following statement:

“With the result of the race once again confirmed, I hope we can put this election behind us and continue moving forward on the issues that working families are concerned about. It’s time to get to work strengthening our schools, investing in infrastructure and expanding economic opportunities in our state.

“I want to thank all of the local election officials, poll workers, volunteers and observers who put in many long hours to protect the integrity of our electoral process and make sure every vote was counted. Once again, their efforts have resulted in another clean, open and transparent election in western Wisconsin.”
