REP. HESSELBEIN STATEMENT ON LAME DUCK SESSION

MADISON – Wisconsin Assistant Assembly Democratic Leader Dianne Hesselbein (D – Middleton) released the following statement regarding today’s lame-duck, extraordinary session:

“Today’s unprecedented session was called by power-hungry Republican legislators to override the will of the people and unfairly expand Republican authority. These bills consolidate the majority party’s power—not for better government, but for their own political gain. Rather than working together to create better roads, schools and communities, Republicans are taking time and taxpayer money to impose their judgement on Wisconsin voters. The majority party chooses power over the Wisconsin people once again. It is unacceptable.

“The people voted on November 6 to reject the divide and conquer approach Governor Walker and Assembly Republicans relied on for eight years. The people of Wisconsin demand and deserve better.”
