Rep. Allen Appointed Chairman of the Constitution and Ethics Committee

MADISON – Representative Scott Allen (R-Waukesha) has been selected by the Speaker of the Assembly to serve as the chairman of the Committee on Constitution and Ethics for this upcoming term beginning January 3, 2017.

“I am honored by the trust the Speaker has in me to serve in this capacity and I am humbled by the awesomeness of the responsibility,” said Rep. Allen. “I pray for the wisdom and temperament to aptly guide the committee in this upcoming term.”

Furthermore, Allen has been asked to continue serving as Vice-chairman of the Committee on Housing and Real Estate.

“Real estate and housing are in my wheelhouse, so I’m excited to continue on the committee,” said Rep. Allen. “Furthermore, they play such an important role in Wisconsin’s economy, so I’m glad I can have an influence in that sector.”

Representative Scott Allen was just reelected to his second term. He represents the 97th Assembly District which includes Waukesha, Genesee, and Mukwonago.

Other committee assignments are expected to come in the next couple of weeks.
