Rep. Spiros Named Chairman of Assembly Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety

Madison – Today, Representative John Spiros (R-Marshfield) was appointed as the chairman of the Assembly Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety.

“I am tremendously honored to be the chairman of the Assembly Committee on Criminal Justice and Public Safety. This committee has always discussed bold ideas that have a real impact on the lives of the people of Wisconsin. I look forward to continuing that work in the next session,” said Rep. Spiros.

Rep. Spiros served in the United States Air Force for six years and was part of an elite security squad that provided protection for 26 generals and the command center for the Strategic Air Command. After leaving the service, he served as a police officer. He has been in the transportation industry for 24 years, in the role of VP of Safety and Claims Management.

Additionally, Rep. Spiros was renamed vice-chairman of the Assembly Committee on Transportation.
