Representative Rob Brooks Re-appointed as Co-chairman of the Joint Legislative Council

Madison, WI—This week, Representative Rob Brooks was re-appointed to a second term as co-chairman of the Joint Legislative Council.

“I am honored to continue serving as co-chairman of the Joint Legislative Council,” Representative Rob Brooks said. “The Joint Legislative Council is tasked with creating study committees to address issues of paramount importance to Wisconsinites. These committees are unique, as both legislators and citizens serve as members, which allows for greater dialogue and feedback from those with firsthand experience in a particular issue area. As the chairman of this session’s Joint Legislative Council Study Committee on Child Placement and Support, I know that study committees are effective in formulating legislative solutions to real-life problems. I look forward to continued success from next session’s study committees.”
