Shilling Announces Senate Office Staff

MADISON – Several new staffers will be joining Senate Democratic Leader Jennifer Shilling (D-La Crosse) in her legislative office for the upcoming 2017-18 session. Danielle Williams, a veteran legislative aide who currently works for Sen. Julie Lassa (D-Stevens Point) will be joining the Shilling office as the Policy Director. Williams has over a decade of experience in Senator Lassa’s office, serving families in the neighboring 24th Senate District.

Katie Iliff, who most recently worked for the State Senate Democratic Committee and previously worked in the State Assembly Sergeant-at-Arm’s Office, will be joining the team as a Policy Analyst.

Steven Worley, a former Shilling intern who most recently worked for the State Senate Democratic Committee, will serve as the Constituent Relations Director.

Kara Pennoyer, Tony Palese and Kate Constalie will continue in Shilling’s State Capitol office and Taylor Goodine will continue in the La Crosse district office.
