

Below is a statement from AG-elect Josh Kaul.

"Today, Governor Walker signed stunningly bad legislation that makes changes to the way our government functions in order to diminish the impact of this year's elections. To state the obvious, it's wrong to retroactively take power from the record number of Wisconsinites who turned out to vote this year."