Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill makes the following changes to the structure and operation of the Government Accountability Board (GAB):

BOARD GOVERNANCE

Currently, the GAB is under the direction and supervision of a board of six members. All six members are former judges appointed by the governor from nominations submitted by a committee comprised of one court of appeals judge from each court of appeals district. Currently, board members are appointed with the advice and consent of two-thirds of the members of the senate and serve six-year terms. One term expires each May 1.

This bill eliminates the GAB and replaces it with an Elections Commission, which administers and supervises elections, and an Ethics Commission, which administers and supervises ethics, campaign financing, and lobbying regulation.

Under the bill, the Elections Commission consists of at least six persons, who serve five-year terms:

- 1) One individual appointed by the majority leader in the senate;
- 2) One individual appointed by the minority leader in the senate;
- 3) One individual appointed by the speaker of the assembly.
- 4) One individual appointed by the minority leader of the assembly; and
- 5) Two former municipal or county clerks, selected by the leadership in both houses and nominated by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate confirmed.

In addition, the bill requires the appointment to the Elections Commission of one member for each political party, other than the two major political parties, qualifying for a separate ballot whose candidate for governor received at least 10 percent of the vote in the most recent gubernatorial election. The individual must be nominated by the governor from a list of three individuals selected by the chief officer of that political party.

BILL

The Ethics Commission consists of at least six persons who serve five-year terms:

- 1) One individual appointed by the majority leader in the senate;
- 2) One individual appointed by the minority leader in the senate;
- 3) One individual appointed by the speaker of the assembly;
- 4) One individual appointed by the minority leader of the assembly; and
- 5) Two individuals selected by the leadership in both houses and nominated by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate confirmed.

In addition, the bill requires the appointment to the Ethics Commission of one member for each political party, other than the two major political parties, qualifying for a separate ballot whose candidate for governor received at least 10 percent of the vote in the most recent gubernatorial election. The individual must be nominated by the governor from a list of three individuals selected by the chief officer of that political party and confirmed by a majority of the senate.

Currently, the chairperson of the board is selected by lot by the current chairperson. Under the bill, the chairperson of each commission is chosen by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the members of the commission.

Currently, the GAB is required to employ an individual to serve as legal counsel to perform legal and administrative functions for the board. The bill eliminates the requirement that either commission hire legal counsel.

ETHICS COMMISSION

Under the bill, the Ethics Commission is supervised by an administrator who is appointed by at least a majority of the members of the commission. The administrator is appointed with the advice and consent of the senate to serve for a four-year term expiring on July 1 of the odd-numbered year.

ELECTIONS COMMISSION

Under the bill, the Elections Commission is supervised by an administrator who is appointed by at least a majority of the members of the commission. The administrator is appointed with the advice and consent of the senate to serve for a four-year term expiring on July 1 of the odd-numbered year. The bill also provides that the administrator of the Elections Commission, rather than an employee that the commission designates, is the chief election officer of this state.

INVESTIGATIONS

Currently, the GAB must investigate violations of laws administered by the GAB and may prosecute alleged civil violations. Current law permits the board to refer a matter to a district attorney, special prosecutor, or to the attorney general. This bill provides that, except for violations that result in a payment not exceeding $2,500, the Elections and Ethics commissions may only investigate violations of laws administered by the respective commissions upon the filing of a sworn complaint with the respective commission. The bill prohibits any member of either commission or any employee of either commission from filing such a sworn complaint.

If, during the course of an ongoing investigation, either the Elections Commission or the Ethics Commission determines that it needs additional funding, that commission must make a request to the Joint Committee on Finance and the secretary of administration. The commission must include in its request information about the nature of the investigation for which additional funding is sought, excluding the name of any individual or organization that is the subject of the investigation.

ADVISORY OPINIONS

Current law permits any individual, organization, or governmental body to request an advisory opinion from the GAB; in response, the GAB may issue a formal or an informal advisory opinion. If the board issues an opinion on an elections matter, the board must make the opinion and records about the opinion public. Current law prohibits the board from revealing the identify of or releasing information obtained in connection with any advisory opinion requested by an individual or organization on an ethics or accountability matter unless the individual or organization consents to the release of that information. This bill requires the Ethics Commission to make this information, other than the name of the individual, organization, or governmental body making the request, public when it relates to a formal advisory opinion issued by the Ethics Commission.

Current law requires the GAB to biennially submit to the legislature a report on the performance and operation of the GAB during the preceding biennium. This bill requires the Elections and Ethics commissions to submit annual reports to the legislature and to include in those reports information about the number of investigations conducted, a description of the nature of the investigation, and, in the case of the Ethics Commission, whether the investigation related to campaign finance, ethics, or lobbying.

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Under the bill, all full-time equivalent positions currently authorized for GAB are transferred to the Elections and Ethics commissions. All incumbents in those positions except the director and general counsel of GAB are also transferred. In addition, the bill transfers the assets and liabilities, tangible personal property, contracts, rules, orders, formal opinions, and pending matters of GAB to the Elections and Ethics commissions. The bill directs the secretary of administration to determine which positions, employees, assets and liabilities, property, contracts, rules, orders, opinions, and matters are transferred to which commission and to adopt an implementation plan for the transfer containing his or her determinations.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

22 SECTION 197. 19.49 of the statutes is created to read:

23 19.49 Administration; enforcement. (1) GENERAL AUTHORITY. The

2 the subject of an investigation, subpoena and bring before it any person and require 3 the production of any papers, book, or other records relevant to an investigation.
4 Notwithstanding s. 885.01 (4), the issuance of a subpoena requires action by the 5 commission at a meeting of the commission. A circuit court may by order permit the 6 inspection and copying of the accounts and the depositor's and loan records at any 7 financial institution, as defined in s. 705.01 (3), doing business in the state to obtain 8 evidence of any violation of ch. 11 upon showing by the commission of probable cause

15 III of ch. 13, or this subchapter for which the offender is subject to a revocation. The 16 commission may compromise and settle any civil action or potential action brought 17 or authorized to be brought by it which, in the opinion of the commission, constitutes 18 a minor violation, a violation caused by excusable neglect, or which for other good 19 cause shown, should not in the public interest be prosecuted under such chapter.
20 Notwithstanding s. 778.06, a civil action or proposed civil action authorized under 21 this paragraph may be settled for such sum as may be agreed between the parties.
22 Any settlement made by the commission shall be in such amount as to deprive the 23 alleged violator of any benefit of his or her wrongdoing and may contain a penal 24 component to serve as a deterrent to future violations. In settling civil actions or 25 proposed civil actions, the commission shall treat comparable situations in a

1 comparable manner and shall assure that any settlement bears a reasonable 2 relationship to the severity of the offense or alleged offense. Except as otherwise 3 provided in sub. (2) (b) 13. and 14. and ss. 19.554 and 19.59 (8), forfeiture and license 4 revocation actions brought by the commission shall be brought in the circuit court 5 for the county where the defendant resides, or if the defendant is a nonresident of this 6 state, in circuit court for the county wherein the violation is alleged to occur. For 7 purposes of this paragraph, a person other than an individual resides within a county 8 if the person's principal place of operation is located within that county. Whenever 9 the commission enters into a settlement agreement with an individual who is 10 accused of a civil violation of ch. 11, subch. III of ch. 13, or this subchapter or who is 11 investigated by the commission for a possible civil violation of one of those provisions, 12 the commission shall reduce the agreement to writing, together with a statement of 13 the commission's findings and reasons for entering into the agreement and shall 14 retain the agreement and statement in its office for inspection.

15 (c) Sue for injunctive relief, a writ of mandamus or prohibition, or other such 16 legal or equitable relief as may be appropriate to enforce any law regulating 17 campaign financing or ensure its proper administration. No bond is required in such 18 actions. Actions shall be brought in circuit court for the county where a violation 19 occurs or may occur.

20 (1m) (title) COMPLAINTS.

21 (2) ENFORCEMENT. (a) The commission shall investigate violations of laws 22 administered by the commission and may prosecute alleged civil violations of those 23 laws, directly or through its agents under this subsection, pursuant to all statutes 24 granting or assigning that authority or responsibility to the commission.
25 Prosecution of alleged criminal violations investigated by the commission may be

BILL

1 brought only as provided in par. (b) 9., 12., 13., and 14. and s. 978.05 (1). For purposes 2 of this subsection, the commission may only initiate an investigation of an alleged 3 violation of ch. 11, subch. III of ch. 13, and this subchapter, other than an offense 4 described under par. (b) 10., based on a sworn complaint filed with the commission, 5 as provided under par. (b). Neither the commission nor any member or employee of 6 the commission, including the commission administrator, may file a sworn complaint 7 for purposes of this subsection.

8 (b) 1. Any person may file a complaint with the commission alleging a violation 9 of ch. 11, subch. III of ch. 13, or this subchapter. No later than 5 days after receiving 10 a complaint, the commission shall notify each person who or which the complaint 11 alleges committed such a violation. Before voting on whether to take any action 12 regarding the complaint, other than to dismiss, the commission shall give each 13 person receiving a notice under this subdivision an opportunity to demonstrate to the 14 commission, in writing and within 15 days after receiving the notice, that the 15 commission should take no action against the person on the basis of the complaint.
16 The commission may not conduct any investigation or take any other action under 17 this subsection solely on the basis of a complaint by an unidentified complainant.

18 1m. If the commission finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that a 19 complaint is frivolous, the commission may order the complainant to forfeit not more 20 than the greater of $500 or the expenses incurred by the commission in investigating 21 the complaint.

22 2. Any person to whom ch. 11, subch. III of ch. 13, or this subchapter may have 23 application may request the commission to make an investigation of his or her own 24 conduct or of allegations made by other persons as to his or her conduct. Such a 25 request shall be made in writing and shall set forth in detail the reasons therefor.

BILL

1 3. If the commission reviews a complaint and fails to find that there is a 2 reasonable suspicion that a violation under subd. 1. has occurred or is occurring, the 3 commission shall dismiss the complaint. If the commission believes that there is 4 reasonable suspicion that a violation under subd. 1. has occurred or is occurring, the 5 commission may by resolution authorize the commencement of an investigation. The 6 resolution shall specifically set forth any matter that is authorized to be investigated.
7 To assist in the investigation, the commission may elect to retain a special 8 investigator. If the commission elects to retain a special investigator, the 9 administrator shall submit to the commission the names of 3 qualified individuals 10 to serve as a special investigator. The commission may retain one or more of the 11 individuals. If the commission retains a special investigator to investigate a 12 complaint against a person who is a resident of this state, the commission shall 13 provide to the district attorney for the county in which the person resides a copy of 14 the complaint and shall notify the district attorney that it has retained a special 15 investigator to investigate the complaint. For purposes of this subdivision, a person 16 other than an individual resides within a county if the person's principal place of 17 operation is located within that county. The commission shall enter into a written 18 contract with any individual who is retained as a special investigator setting forth 19 the terms of the engagement. A special investigator who is retained by the 20 commission may request the commission to issue a subpoena to a specific person or 21 to authorize the special investigator to request the circuit court of the county in which 22 the specific person resides to issue a search warrant. The commission may grant the 23 request by approving a motion to that effect at a meeting of the commission if the 24 commission finds that such action is legally appropriate.

BILL

1 4. Each special investigator who is retained by the commission shall make 2 periodic reports to the commission, as directed by the commission, but in no case may 3 the interval for reporting exceed 30 days. If the commission authorizes the 4 administrator to investigate any matter without retaining a special investigator, the 5 administrator shall make periodic reports to the commission, as directed by the 6 commission, but in no case may the reporting interval exceed 30 days. During the 7 pendency of any investigation, the commission shall meet for the purpose of 8 reviewing the progress of the investigation at least once every 90 days. The special 9 investigator or the administrator shall report in person to the commission at that 10 meeting concerning the progress of the investigation. If, after receiving a report, the 11 commission does not vote to continue an investigation for an additional period not 12 exceeding 90 days, the investigation is terminated at the end of the reporting 13 interval. The commission shall not expend more than $25,000 to finance the cost of 14 an investigation before receiving a report on the progress of the investigation and a 15 recommendation to commit additional resources. The commission may vote to 16 terminate an investigation at any time. If an investigation is terminated, any 17 complaint from which the investigation arose is deemed to be dismissed by the 18 commission. Unless an investigation is terminated by the commission, at the 19 conclusion of each investigation, the administrator shall present to the commission 20 one of the following:

21 a. A recommendation to make a finding that probable cause exists to believe 22 that one or more violations under subd. 1. have occurred or are occurring, together 23 with a recommended course of action.

24 b. A recommendation for further investigation of the matter together with facts 25 supporting that course of action.

BILL

1 c. A recommendation to terminate the investigation due to lack of sufficient 2 evidence to indicate that a violation under subd. 1. has occurred or is occurring.

3 5. a. If the commission finds that there is probable cause to believe that a 4 violation under subd. 1. has occurred or is occurring, the commission may authorize 5 the administrator to file a civil complaint against the alleged violator. In such case, 6 the administrator may request the assistance of special counsel to prosecute any 7 action brought by the commission. If the administrator requests the assistance of 8 special counsel with respect to any matter, the administrator shall submit to the 9 commission the names of 3 qualified individuals to serve as special counsel. The 10 commission may retain one of the individuals to act as special counsel. The staff of 11 the commission shall provide assistance to the special counsel as may be required by 12 the counsel to carry out his or her responsibilities.

13 b. The commission shall enter into a written contract with any individual who 14 is retained as special counsel setting forth the terms of the engagement. The contract 15 shall set forth the compensation to be paid such counsel by the state. The contract 16 shall be executed on behalf of the state by the commission and the commission shall 17 file the contract in the office of the secretary of state. The compensation shall be 18 charged to the appropriation under s. 20.521 (1) (br).

19 6. No individual who is appointed or retained by the commission to serve as 20 special counsel or as a special investigator is subject to approval under s. 20.930.

21 7. At the conclusion of its investigation, the commission shall, in preliminary 22 written findings of fact and conclusions based thereon, make a determination of 23 whether or not probable cause exists to believe that a violation under subd. 1. has 24 occurred or is occurring. If the commission determines that no probable cause exists, 25 it shall dismiss the complaint. Whenever the commission dismisses a complaint or

BILL

1 a complaint is deemed to be dismissed under subd. 4., the commission shall 2 immediately send written notice of the dismissal to the accused and to the party who 3 made the complaint.

4 8. The commission shall inform the accused or his or her counsel of exculpatory 5 evidence in its possession.

6 9. If the commission finds that there is probable cause to believe that a violation 7 under subd. 1. has occurred or is occurring, the commission may, in lieu of civil 8 prosecution of any matter by the commission, refer the matter to the district attorney 9 for the county in which the alleged violator resides, or if the alleged violator is a 10 nonresident, to the district attorney for the county where the matter arises, or if par.
11 (h) applies, to the attorney general or a special prosecutor. For purposes of this 12 subdivision, a person other than an individual resides within a county if the person's 13 principal place of operation is located within that county.

14 10. The commission shall, by rule, prescribe categories of civil offenses which 15 the commission will agree to compromise and settle without a formal investigation 16 upon payment of specified amounts by the alleged offender. The commission may 17 authorize the administrator to compromise and settle such alleged offenses in the 18 name of the commission if the alleged offenses by an offender, in the aggregate, do 19 not involve payment of more than $2,500.

20 11. If a special investigator or the administrator, in the course of an 21 investigation authorized by the commission, discovers evidence that a violation 22 under subd. 1. that was not within the scope of the authorized investigation has 23 occurred or is occurring, the special investigator or the administrator may present 24 that evidence to the commission. If the commission finds that there is a reasonable 25 suspicion that a violation under subd. 1. that is not within the scope of the authorized

1 investigation has occurred or is occurring, the commission may authorize the special 2 investigator or the administrator to investigate the alleged violation or may elect to 3 authorize a separate investigation of the alleged violation as provided in subd. 3.

4 12. If a special investigator or the administrator, in the course of an 5 investigation authorized by the commission, discovers evidence of a potential 6 violation of a law that is not administered by the commission arising from or in 7 relation to the official functions of the subject of the investigation or any matter that 8 involves campaign finance, ethics, or lobbying regulation, the special investigator or 9 the administrator may present that evidence to the commission. The commission 10 may thereupon refer the matter to the appropriate district attorney specified in subd.
11 9. or may refer the matter to the attorney general. The attorney general may then 12 commence a civil or criminal prosecution relating to the matter.

13 13. Except as provided in subd. 15., if the commission refers a matter to the 14 district attorney specified in subd. 9. for prosecution of a potential violation under 15 subd. 1. or 12. and the district attorney informs the commission that he or she 16 declines to prosecute any alleged civil or criminal violation related to any matter 17 referred to the district attorney by the commission, or the district attorney fails to 18 commence a prosecution of any civil or criminal violation related to any matter 19 referred to the district attorney by the commission within 60 days of the date of the 20 commission's referral, the commission may refer the matter to the district attorney 21 for another prosecutorial unit that is contiguous to the prosecutorial unit of the 22 district attorney to whom the matter was originally referred. If there is more than 23 one such prosecutorial unit, the chairperson of the commission shall determine the 24 district attorney to whom the matter shall be referred by publicly drawing lots at a

1 meeting of the commission. The district attorney may then commence a civil or 2 criminal prosecution relating to the matter.

3 14. Except as provided in subd. 15., if the commission refers a matter to a 4 district attorney under subd. 13. for prosecution of a potential violation under subd.
5 1. or 12. and the district attorney informs the commission that he or she declines to 6 prosecute any alleged civil or criminal violation related to any matter referred to the 7 district attorney by the commission, or the district attorney fails to commence a 8 prosecution of any civil or criminal violation related to any matter referred to the 9 district attorney by the commission within 60 days of the date of the commission's 10 referral, the commission may refer the matter to the attorney general. The attorney 11 general may then commence a civil or criminal prosecution relating to the matter.

12 15. The commission is not authorized to act under subd. 13. or 14. if a special 13 prosecutor is appointed under s. 978.045 in lieu of the district attorney specified in 14 subd. 9.

15 16. Whenever the commission refers a matter to special counsel or to a district 16 attorney or to the attorney general under this subsection, the special counsel, district 17 attorney, or attorney general shall report to the commission concerning any action 18 taken regarding the matter. The report shall be transmitted no later than 40 days 19 after the date of the referral. If the matter is not disposed of during that period, the 20 special counsel, district attorney, or attorney general shall file a subsequent report 21 at the end of each 30-day period following the filing of the initial report until final 22 disposition of the matter.

23 (c) 1. No individual who serves as the administrator may have been a lobbyist, 24 as defined in s. 13.62 (11). No such individual may have served in a partisan state 25 or local office.

BILL

2 as defined in s. 11.01 (1), for a state or partisan local office. No individual who is 3 retained by the commission to serve as a special investigator or as special counsel 4 may, while so retained, become a candidate, as defined in s. 11.01 (1), for any state 5 or local office. A filing officer shall decline to accept nomination papers or a 6 declaration of candidacy from any individual who does not qualify to become a 7 candidate under this paragraph.

8 (d) No individual who serves as an employee of the commission and no 9 individual who is retained by the commission to serve as a special investigator or a 10 special counsel may, while so employed or retained, make a contribution, as defined 11 in s. 11.01 (6), to a candidate for state or local office. No individual who serves as an 12 employee of the commission and no individual who is retained by the commission to 13 serve as a special investigator or as special counsel, for 12 months prior to becoming 14 so employed or retained, may have made a contribution, as defined in s. 11.01 (6), to 15 a candidate for a partisan state or local office.

16 (e) Pursuant to any investigation authorized under par. (b), the commission has 17 the power:

18 1. To require any person to submit in writing such reports and answers to 19 questions relevant to the proceedings as the commission may prescribe, such 20 submission to be made within such period and under oath or otherwise as the 21 commission may determine.

22 2. To order testimony to be taken by deposition before any individual who is 23 designated by the commission and has the power to administer oaths, and, in such 24 instances, to compel testimony and the production of evidence in the same manner 25 as authorized by sub. (1) (a).

BILL

1 3. To pay witnesses the same fees and mileage as are paid in like circumstances 2 by the courts of this state.

4 or franchise tax returns and access to other appropriate information under s. 71.78 5 (4) regarding all persons who are the subject of such investigation.

6 (f) 1. Except as provided in subd. 2., no action may be taken on any complaint 7 that is filed later than 3 years after a violation of ch. 11, subch. III of ch. 13, or this 8 subchapter is alleged to have occurred.

9 2. The period of limitation under subd. 1. is tolled for a complaint alleging a 10 violation of s. 19.45 (13) or 19.59 (1) (br) for the period during which such a complaint 11 may not be filed under sub. (1m) or s. 19.59 (8) (cm).

12 (g) If the defendant in an action for a civil violation of ch. 11, subch. III of ch.
13 13, or this subchapter is a district attorney or a circuit judge or a candidate for either 14 such office, the action shall be brought by the commission. If the defendant in an 15 action for a civil violation of ch. 11, subch. III of ch. 13, or this subchapter is the 16 attorney general or a candidate for that office, the commission may appoint special 17 counsel to bring suit on behalf of the state.

18 (h) If the defendant in an action for a criminal violation of ch. 11, subch. III of 19 ch. 13, or this subchapter is a district attorney or a circuit judge or a candidate for 20 either such office, the action shall be brought by the attorney general. If the 21 defendant in an action for a criminal violation of ch. 11, subch. III of ch. 13, or this 22 subchapter is the attorney general or a candidate for that office, the commission may 23 appoint a special prosecutor to conduct the prosecution on behalf of the state.

BILL

5 enforcement of ch. 11, subch. III of ch. 13, or this subchapter shall be the exclusive 6 remedy for alleged civil violations of ch. 11, subch. III of ch. 13, or this subchapter.

7 (2q) SUPPLEMENTAL FUNDING FOR ONGOING INVESTIGATIONS. The commission may 8 request supplemental funds to be credited to the appropriation account under s.

13 statutory provision authorizing or directing the performance of the action, and 14 information about the nature of the investigation for which the commission seeks 15 supplemental funds, excluding the name of any individual or organization that is the 16 subject of the investigation. If the cochairpersons of the joint committee on finance 17 do not notify the secretary of administration that the committee has scheduled a

21 not to exceed the amount the commission requested. If, within 14 working days after 22 the commission filed the request, the cochairpersons of the joint committee on 23 finance notify the secretary that the committee has scheduled a meeting for the 24 purpose of reviewing the commission's request under this subsection, the secretary 25 may supplement the appropriation under s. 20.521 (1) (be) only with the committee's

BILL

1 approval. The committee and the secretary shall notify the commission of all their
